Liquor license rules toughened

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

Liquor licenses may become much more difficult to obtain in Granite City.

An amendment to the city's liquor license ordinance adopted by the City Council Tuesday night would prohibit the issuance of a license to any applicant whose business property is within 300 feet of a school, church or hospital.

The ordinance had previously required license applicants to be located at least 100 feet from such facilities. While that distance was measured from building to building in the past, the amendment provides that the distance now be measured from property boundary lines.

Mayor Ron Selph said that he requested the amendment to further protect children and other members of the public from the dangers and nuisances associated with establishments that sell alcoholic beverages.

But after the City Council unanimously approved the amendment, Alderman Craig Tarporoff pointed out that many established businesses — including as National Foods, QuikTrip, Hucks and many taverns in the city would no longer qualify for licenses due to their proximity to schools, churches or St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

National is located across Madison Avenue from Granite City High School. QuikTrip and Hucks are both within 300 feet of SEMC property. Many taverns and liquor stores are located within 300 feet of churches or schools.

"As I understand it, liquor licenses are issued for one year and businesses must re-apply each year. I want to be sure that when National, Hucks, QuikTrip and these other businesses apply for licenses the next time around, they will not be excluded because of this amendment," Tarporoff said.

City Attorney Leo Konzen said that Tarporoff was correct regarding the application process and that he would have to look into the matter. He said that the amendment could possibly be changed to exempt businesses that held a liquor license at the time the amendment was adopted.

Meanwhile, Selph said he would refrain from signing the amendment into law until Konzen researches the matter. The amendment was not on the City Council agenda and was distributed to aldermen before the meeting. Many of them said after the meeting that they had not been aware that the matter would be brought up and that they had not had time to research the issue.

Robbery suspect captured

The man who allegedly beat and robbed Granite City businessman Don Caughran last month is now behind bars.

Richard D. Hart, 29, of Festus, Mo., was arrested in Fairview Heights Thursday. Police say Hart used a fictitious name when arrested Thursday on a charge of retail theft, but that U.S. Marshals, acting on a tip, had Granite City detectives travel to the St. Clair County jail to identify Hart.

Police said Hart was also wanted for violating furlough because he failed to appear for sentencing on a previous drug possession conviction. He remained in the St. Clair County jail Friday.

Hart was charged with armed robbery July 22 for allegedly using two weapons — a knife and a gallon can of paint stripper — during a robbery at Don's Hardware in the 1800 block of Delmar Avenue July 17.

Hart allegedly took more than $3,200 cash and five rings with a total value of more than $7,700 from Caughran, 59, who was working alone in the store that morning.

Bond on the armed robbery warrant is $100,000.

Local police agencies and U.S. Marshals had been searching for Hart for more than a month. Hart had been known to "hang out" in the downtown area of Granite City, but police said he went into hiding after the case received publicity.

Caughran said that he picked Hart's photograph out of a police photo lineup and that Hart's fingerprints match those found on a paint brush collected as evidence at the scene.

Caughran sustained a broken nose, a shattered eye socket, a fractured shoulder and bruises all over his body as a result of the beating. Caughran told police that the robber threatened to cut off his finger and probably would have killed if a telephone had not begun ringing, frightening the robber away.

"I didn't fight him or anything. I just asked him not to kill me. I even offered him the money in the cash drawer," Caughran said.

Car show to benefit animals, APA

Each day, 70,000 puppies and kittens are born in this country. But only one out of every six puppies and one out of 12 kittens will find a home. The rest will be killed or abandoned.

Last year in the St. Louis metropolitan region, approximately 60,000 puppies, kittens, cats and dogs were destroyed because of the pet overpopulation problem. Nationally, a dog or cat is euthanized every 1.7 seconds.

The Association for the Protection of Animals is doing what it can to help curtail the pet overpopulation problem. APA is a not-for-profit organization operating a no-kill animal shelter in Granite City.

But while the APA will not euthanize animals and keeps them until their natural lives end, the shelter fills up quickly. The simple truth is, there are not enough homes for all of the unwanted animals.

Subsequently, because of a lack of space at the APA facility, many animals are abandoned near the facility on Old Alton Road.

The APA is actively involved in spay and neutering education and other activities to eliminate the continuing overpopulation problem.

The APA will hold its first-ever benefit car show at Weber Chevrolet in Granite City from noon to 5 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 28, as a fund raiser. Prizes will be awarded to the top

Transportation ideas to be studied

By Scott Wuerz
Staff writer

The Madison County Transit Authority and the County Highway Department received a $250,000 grant from the County Board Wednesday to study the future of transportation in the county.

Madison County Transit Authority director Jerry Kane said the money will be used to investigate several different forms of transportation.

"This is a long-range study that will help us plan a 10-year strategic vision of how the Madison County transportation system should grow," Kane said. "This is a very important process because it involves nearly every segment of the county and the possibility of bringing several new forms of transportation here."

A high-priority in the study is examining the possibility of bringing light rail to Madison County.

Because of the success of Metro-

Link, everyone from Granite City to Alton seems to be interested in light rail," Kane said. "We're also looking into the development of county highways, airports and maybe even water ports."

Kane said the study, which he said he believes is the most thorough of its kind ever conducted in Southern Illinois, will help bring the county closer to St. Louis and will ease the burden of its rapid commercial and residential growth.

Woman found stabbed to death

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

Madison County authorities are looking for clues in the Thursday morning stabbing death of a 22-year-old East St. Louis woman near Madison.

The body of Lavonda R. Nauden, of Tudor Avenue in East St. Louis, was found by a passing motorist at about 6:30 a.m. Thursday near Horseshoe Lake on Bend Road, just east of Highway 203, outside of the Madison city limits, said Capt. Bob Hertz of the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

Hertz said that Nauden had been stabbed and probably sexually assaulted.

Hertz said evidence indicates the woman was stabbed at the site where the body was recovered.

"We can assume she was sexually assaulted — the evidence and her lifestyle would seem to indicate that. Tests were performed during the autopsy and we are awaiting the results," he said.

"Something went wrong out there. Something went haywire," he said.

Hertz said Nauden was last seen by relatives leaving her

The case of the missing exhibits

Melucci locates evidence

By Hiloy Schulte
Staff writer

Perry Mason might have called it "The case of the missing evidence conspiracy." Madison officials and attorneys were stunned to learn this week that in a nearly 10-year-old case against the City of Madison, which is scheduled to resume trial soon, all trial exhibits were missing, and no one had been able to locate them.

But after contacting Circuit Clerk Matt Melucci on Wednesday, the exhibits were found in a matter of seconds — exactly where they were supposed to be.

"Apparently it was a case of somebody not asking the right question to the right person," Melucci said.

The consolidated case, Don Bridick v. City of Madison and Judith Donaldson and Shirley Greer v. City of Madison, was tried for two days in 1985 in front of Judge Wendall Durr, according to a letter from William E. Miller III, an attorney for the city's insurance company.

The case concerns payments for vacation time, compensatory time and sick time Bridick and the other plaintiffs claim were due to them from the city when "Apparently it was a case of somebody not asking the right question to the right person."

The letter states that on the second day of trial, Judge Durr stopped the trial due to illness and rescheduled it. All attorneys left the courtroom, leaving their exhibits with the court in the court file.

Subsequently, Judge Durr dismissed himself from the case. It was assigned to an out-of-county judge and is scheduled for the near future.

Miller said he recently searched for the files at the Edwardsville and Alton Courthouses, the chief judge's office and with Judge Durr. While Miller found the case file, the exhibits were not with the file.

Miller also contacted both attorneys for the plaintiffs, and "it was their recollection that all exhibits had been left with the court. Upon checking their files, they also discovered that their exhibits were missing," wrote Miller.

At the regular Madison City Council meeting Tuesday night,

Mayor John Bellcoff said that he and Jeanne Weidner, city comptroller, would begin trying to locate any of the exhibits which may be within the Madison City Hall on Wednesday.

The council officially went on record that it had received the letter from Miller.

Alderman Norris Horton asked, "How can it go to trial when there are no records?"

But after a call to Melucci's office Wednesday morning, the exhibits were found exactly where they should be — in a vault containing civil trial exhibits.

"It isn't uncommon that a judge will ask for a case file and not the exhibits. Apparently that's what happened and when the judge told (Miller) that the file was all he had, (Miller) assumed the exhibits were missing," Melucci said.

Coincidentally, in the 10 years between the initial trial and today, Melucci became Circuit Clerk after defeating Bridick — who is now chief of courthouse security — in a heated primary in 1992.

So what had all the components of a conspiracy/mystery turned out to be only a failure in communication.

Red Cross issues blood alert; drive here Monday

American Red Cross, Missouri and Illinois Regional Blood Services, has issued a Code Yellow blood supply alert to urge people to give blood immediately. Red Cross supplies of Type O blood are down 40 percent.

Local residents will have an opportunity to give blood Monday at the Elks Lodge.

"Hospital inventories are improved due to the generous response from the community," said Linda Rapp, Red Cross donor-services administrator. "But, to keep hospital supplies up, we still need more donors. We need 4,000 additional blood donors over what is currently scheduled between now and Sept. 12 to continue meeting patient needs."

American Red Cross urges donors to give blood in the weeks ahead to prevent an ongoing blood shortage. The urgent need for blood donors is expected to continue throughout August and September.

Donors can give at the Elks Lodge 1063, 4501 Maryville Road, Granite City, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 22.

For more information, call the Red Cross at 658-2126 or 1 (800) 705-2406.

Wood River site proposed for county recycling facility

River Bend Growth Association officials are trying to lure a county recycling facility to the Lewis and Clark Envir-Tech Park in Wood River.

That requirement would likely force the recycling companies to consider sites along the western edge of Madison County, where most of the population is concentrated, Parente said.

"The Wood River site is one of areas that would meet the criteria we have set forth. There are others also, but that decision is up to the companies (submitting bids)," Parente added.

The opening of the recycling center, technically referred to as a materials recovery facility, is intended to coincide with the start of a countywide curbside recycling mandate set to go into effect July 1, 1996.

"We want to make sure trucks picking up and dropping off recyclables can make their deliveries within a reasonable drive time, so that means the facility would have to be readily accessible to highways," Parente said.

Vegetables

Get More Nutritional Value By Growing Your Own!

FRANK'S NURSERY &amp; CRAFTS

Where Beautiful Things Begin

The luscious fresh taste of home-grown vegetables is probably the main reason people grow their own. And, without a doubt, it's a good reason. But there are many other benefits home gardeners reap, some of which you may not be aware of. The National Garden Bureau has put together a few facts that are worth sharing.

According to studies, fresh-grown produce can be much higher in vitamins and minerals than store-bought ones. Nutritional content of vegetables declines over a period of time, so when you pick your produce from the garden right before eating it, you're getting the highest levels of nutrients.

A fresh-picked, vine-ripened tomato, for example, can have up to three times the vitamin C of a supermarket tomato, depending on how it was grown.

Want still another advantage of growing your own? You know how much, if any, pest controls and other chemicals were applied to the garden. With plants from other sources, you never know what was applied or the quantity of it.

Vegetables that aren't eaten right away should be refrigerated. At room temperature, vegetables can lose up to 50% of their vitamin C content after 24 hours. If they're refrigerated at 43 degrees, that loss is slowed down to about 10% over 10 days, a considerable difference.

The National Garden Bureau has prepared a chart on some of the essential vitamins and minerals and the food sources they come from. Listed are common garden veggies you can grow. They're listed in order of highest to lowest content, but all of them are a ready source of the vitamin or mineral given.

Calcium. Sources: Parsley, broccoli, loofleaf lettuce, celery, green beans, cauliflower.

Copper. Sources: Most vegetables if grown in a properly mineralized soil.

Iron. Sources: Parsley, spinach, butterhead lettuce, loofleaf lettuce, green peas.

Magnesium. Sources: Spinach, beet greens, broccoli, parsley, summer squash, celery, loofleaf lettuce, tomatoes, sweet peppers.

Manganese. Sources: Beans, peas, lentils.

Potassium. Sources: Spinach, celery, romaine lettuce, parsley, zucchini, tomato, summer squash, romaine lettuce, beans, eggplant.

Selenium. Sources: Corn, legumes, vegetables when grown in a proper soil.

Vitamin A. Sources: Carrots, spinach, red sweet pepper, butternut squash, romaine lettuce, parsley, loofleaf lettuce, green pepper, zucchini.

Vitamin B6. Sources: Spinach, cauliflower, broccoli, sweet pepper, parsley, zucchini, tomato, summer squash, romaine lettuce, beans, eggplant.

Vitamin C. Sources: Red sweet pepper, green pepper, parsley, cauliflower, broccoli, regular cabbage, romaine lettuce, brussels sprouts, spinach, tomatoes, celery, watermelon, green beans.

Vitamin E. Sources: Legumes, some leafy green vegetables.

Zinc. Sources: Spinach, parsley, romaine lettuce, summer squash, loofleaf lettuce, beans in general.

THE VOICE BOX:

Do you think that township government should be eliminated and services taken over by the county, state or local government?

Diane Yeager Granite City
"No, because I think each area should have their own say so about how they run things."

Cheryl Jones and Red Chouteau Township
"No, because I live in a township; I like the way things are currently run in our community."

Joe Douglas Pontoon Beach
"No, I like it the way it is. You're never going to make everybody happy."

Yvonne Gray Granite City
"No, I think it should remain the way it is; we have good services in our community now."

Bryan Smith Mitchell
"No, but I think there should be some changes like extending the park system to Mitchell since we are paying school taxes."

Edwardsville annexes SIUE track stadium

The new track stadium at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is now within the city limits, and the lanes are open for westward expansion. The City Council voted Tuesday to annex about 35 acres near the stadium off Bluff Road and a 300-foot-wide strip that extends north from the stadium to Poag Road. The strip on the university's western boundary is viewed by city officials as a bridge to further annexations. Last summer aldermen approved an annexation agreement with the university for the property but the land was not officially annexed until Tuesday. The annexation was contingent on the city's completion of a new larger-capacity sewer line that serves the stadium. Mayor Gary Niebur said no further action is needed by SIUE officials to validate the annexation. In other action: Aldermen awarded a contract to Farmer Environmental Services Inc. of Edwardsville to monitor asbestos removal at City Hall and the future municipal building on Hillsboro Avenue during renovations that begin next week. The cost is not to exceed $4,600. The City Council also awarded a street sweeping contract with a maximum cost of $3,300 to Heintz Commercial Services of Godfrey. Alderman Winston Brown announced a public hearing on expanding the Lewis & Weber Sewer District 9 will be held at 6:30 p.m. Aug. 30 in the lower level of the public library. — From the Alton Telegraph

Ag hot line number announced

Illinois Agriculture Director Becky Doyle has announced availability of the department's Ag News and Education Service (AGNES) toll-free hot line. "AGNES provides the public with a direct, cost-free route to the department's information resources. The hot line encourages communication between the public and the department," said Doyle. By calling AGNES at 1-800-273-4763 (voice and TDD), Illinois callers will gain access to information on all programs and services administered by the department. Information is available for a number of agriculture-related topics, including environmental programs, animal health and welfare, horse racing, fairs, and ag product inspection and marketing. During regular business hours, Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m., hot line staff will address callers' questions and concerns. If hot line staff do not have immediate access to the information, they will ask for the caller's name and phone number and return the call promptly once the information has been gathered. After regular business hours, callers will reach an answering machine on which they may leave a name, phone number, and brief message. Hot line staff will return the calls the first scheduled work day after the calls are received.

Correct insurance coverage varies by person

This is the fourth article of the series entitled "Making Sense of Your Money".

Make no mistake, sufficient insurance coverage is essential in taking control of your financial life. Without it, your financial aspirations may go up in smoke, and your best plans for saving and investing could be ruined.

Life is uncertain and risky. There are several types of insurance designated to protect against the risks associated with our day-to-day activities. When planning the types of insurance and amount of coverage you need, there are several important matters to keep in mind:

Cover all essential areas. You must make certain that all foreseeable areas of catastrophic risk are insured. The four most common gaps in coverage are inadequate long-term disability coverage, particularly if you are self-employed; inadequate life insurance coverage; inadequate liability coverage on homeowners and automobile policies; and insufficient coverage on valuable personal possessions such as jewelry.

Obtain the correct policy coverage. Carefully evaluate each insurance policy before you purchase it so that you are assured of receiving the kind and amount of coverage that you need. Sometimes, you do not need to purchase the most comprehensive policy, but you should be certain that the coverage you receive meets your own specific needs. Also, you should be able to pay any deductible or policy limits out of your savings.

Adjust coverage to meet your changing needs. You should review the adequacy of your insurance coverage at least annually. For example, if there is an obvious change in your status, such as marriage, the birth of a child, or a job change, update your coverage as soon as possible.

Minimize the cost of insurance. Studies have shown that many people pay too much for their insurance coverage. Fortunately, companies in the insurance industry are intensely competitive. The premiums they charge for similar coverage can vary dramatically. But, be careful, the old saying, "you get what you pay for" applies here.

Stay with the highly-rated, stable companies to avoid a problem. To assist you in making the best insurance decisions, the following types of insurance coverage will be discussed in the next several articles: life, long-term disability, health, automobile and homeowners and renters insurance.

Life insurance provides a way to protect your dependent family members from a loss of income due to the death of one or two breadwinners. How much life insurance coverage do you need?

Determining this can be complicated, but it is a necessary calculation. Life insurance companies can provide projections or you can make a rough estimate from the following general rule of thumb:

First, assuming that you need life insurance, you should start with a bare minimum of four to five times your annual salary. If you have more than one family member who will be financially dependent, you should have six to seven times your annual salary. This minimum would allow your family time to get back on their feet financially after your death.

Most importantly, you should provide funds for your children's college education, a lump sum to pay off the home mortgage and money to provide a lifetime income supplement for your surviving spouse.

Life insurance policies can be divided into two broad categories, term and cash value. Next week's article will address those options.

Brian Mulhall is a partner with America Group Financial Services. He can be reached in Granite City at 831-7922 or in Edwardsville at 692-9383.

Free school lunch policy announced

The three local public school districts have announced their policy for free and reduced price meals for those students unable to pay the full price for meals under the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility:

—Single resident households — with an annual income of $9,568, monthly income of $798 or weekly income of $184 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $13,616, monthly income of $1,135 or weekly income of $262 are eligible for reduced price meals.

—Two-resident households — with an annual income of $12,792, monthly income of $1,066 or weekly income of $246 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $17,804, monthly income of $1,484 or weekly income of $341 are eligible for reduced price meals.

—Three-resident households — with an annual income of $16,016, monthly income of $1,335 or weekly income of $308 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $22,792, monthly income of $1,900 or weekly income of $438 are eligible for reduced price meals.

—Four-resident households — with an annual income of $19,240, monthly income of $1,604 or weekly income of $370 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $27,380, monthly income of $2,282 or weekly income of $527 are eligible for reduced price meals.

—Five-resident households — with an annual income of $22,464, monthly income of $1,872 or weekly income of $432 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $31,968, monthly income of $2,664 or weekly income of $612 are eligible for reduced price meals.

—Six-resident households — with an annual income of $25,688, monthly income of $2,141 or weekly income of $494 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $36,556, monthly income of $3,047 or weekly income of $703 are eligible for reduced price meals.

—Seven-resident households — with an annual income of $28,912, monthly income of $2,410 or weekly income of $556 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $41,144, monthly income of $3,429 or weekly income of $792 are eligible for reduced price meals.

Eligible for reduced price meals. —Eight-resident households — with an annual income of $32,136, monthly income of $2,678 or weekly income of $618 are eligible for free meals; with an annual income of $45,732, monthly income of $3,811 or weekly income of $880 are eligible for reduced price meals.

For each additional family member — add $3,224 to annual, $269 to monthly or $62 to above weekly guidelines to determine eligibility for free meals; add $4,588 to annual, $383 to monthly or $89 to above weekly guidelines to determine eligibility for reduced price meals.

Children from households that meet federal guidelines are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

All meals served must meet patterns established by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. However, if a child has been determined by a doctor to be handicapped and the handicap would prevent the child from eating the regular school meal, the school will make substitutions prescribed by the doctor.

If a substitution is needed, there will be no extra charge for the meal. Those who believe their child needs substitutions because of a handicap should contact the school district for further information.

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a letter to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced price benefits, households must complete the application as soon as possible, sign it and return it to the school. Additional copies of the application form are available at the principal's office at each school. Households should be processed and approved by the school.

The required information is: Food Stamp/AFCDC households — If a household currently receives food stamps or "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" (AFDC) for their children, they only have to list the child(ren)'s name and food stamp or AFDC case number and sign the application.

All other households — If a household's income is at or below the level shown on the income scale (above), children are eligible for either free or reduced price meals. Households must provide the following information: names of all household members, the Social Security number of the adult household member signing the application (or the word "none" if the adult does not have a Social Security number), the amount of income each household member received last month, where it came from (wages, child support, etc.) and the signature of an adult household member.

The information on the application may be verified by school or other officials at any time during the school year.

If income information is provided and children are approved for meal benefits, households must tell the school when their household income increases by $30 or more per month ($600 per year) or when their household size decreases. If a food stamp or AFDC case number was listed, the household must tell the school when they no longer receive food stamps or AFDC for their child.

Households may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If a household is not eligible now but has a decrease in household income, an increase in household size or a household member becomes unemployed, they should fill out an application at that time.

In certain cases, foster children are eligible for meal benefits regardless of the household income. If a household has foster children living with them and they wish to apply for meal or milk benefits for them, they should complete the application.

Households dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss it with the school. Households also have the right to a fair hearing.

In the operation of child feeding programs, a child will be discriminated against because of race, color, national origin, age, sex or handicap. Anyone who feels they have been discriminated against should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250.

Church youth group 'locks in' Frontliners

Lucille Martin covers the Pontoon Beach scene for the Press-Record/Journal. She can be contacted at 931-0721.

The youth group of the Pontoon Baptist Church and leader Diana Bickel hosted a lock-in at the church for a few of the Frontliners who were here for the "Crusade for Christ." There was a total of 18 in attendance.

Breakfast was served at 8:30 a.m. The Frontliners went to the homes of their hosts and returned to the church for their 8 a.m. session.

Out-of-town kids from the crusade attending were minister of youth Brian Bond, Phillip Johnson, Ryan Williamson, Justin Bell, Leah McKnight, Vanessa Carliners, Kristen Boozman, Lindsey Lee and Bobbie Caudwell, all of Rogers, Ark., and Jake and Corrie Wells, both of Garfield, Ark.

The weekly meeting of the Home League Ladies met in the Salvation Army chapel. They spoke of many women in the Bible.

Barbara Miller dressed as Sarah and told the lengthy story of Sarah. Rose Smith dressed as Deborah, the only woman judge in the Bible, and told how Deborah led an army. Nina Hull dressed and spoke like Martha and Mary, with Martha making Jesus comfortable in their home by cooking for him and Mary sitting at Jesus' feet and listening to him talk.

Ernestine Hahn told about Lydia, a businesswoman, who dyed material purple and sold it to the Roman Palace. She became a convert and the first woman of Europe to be baptized and became a friend to Paul and Silas.

Mona McAmish told the story of Naomi and her loving daughter-in-law, Ruth, who worked the fields for Boaz, married him and had a son, Obed, who was the father of Jesse and then David.

Art show Sept. 11

The Gateway East Artists Guild is sponsoring an art show at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows.

Show date is Sept. 11, 11:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. This is an all-media art show, and will be juried. The following artists will be showing their work: Mary Ann Gedda, Norma Stone, Mary Kercher, Dorothy Bellm, Mickey Kuechit, Donna McFerran, Jon Norcom, Susan Walton, Betty Powers, Alma Dieckman, Julia Ogle, and Marjorie Hines.

The art work will be set up outside the Visitors Center.

Lucille Martin

Holly Greenspan told about Dorcas, who sewed for the poor and took care of the poor. She became ill and died. Her friends ran for Peter, who came, prayed and then raised her from the dead. Many women church groups are named for Dorcas.

Dorothy Lakin gave a long discussion on Jesus meeting the woman at the well, who was a Samaritan. He asked her for water. He told her he had living water to drink. She thought he was a prophet.

Vickie Harper told about the woman who had an illness and was healed when she touched Jesus' garment. Exie McAmish told of the widow who gave all she had, which meant more to the rich had to offer.

The meeting was adjourned with a prayer by Doris Stark.

A family council meeting was held July 30 at the Caseyville Nursing Home. The meeting opened with the question "Is this a good time?" The majority of the people said that Saturday is the best time.

A short response was given to the concerns raised at the June meeting, followed with time for input, suggestions and fund-raising ideas. Some upcoming events the council is planning are a celebration for Grandparent's Day and some landscaping efforts.

Volunteers or ideas for entertainment groups for future events are needed. If you know of any groups, please contact the social services.

At the end of the meeting, a 50/50 drawing was conducted to start a fund for future events.

All family council meetings will be held at 10 a.m. the fourth Saturday of every month in the library.

Results of the Caseyville Olympics are: Josephine Woodcock, third place in the shot put; Audie Tucker, second in the shot put; and Flora Baker, first place in the shot put. In bowling, Bernice Starks took third, Clara Stanford took second and Flora Baker took first.

Free eye screening day for seniors set for Sept. 10

Gov. Jim Edgar has proclaimed Saturday, Sept. 10, as "Eye Screening Day for Seniors," a day when seniors across Illinois can have their eyes checked for disease free of charge at many local hospitals and other sites throughout Illinois.

"New medical, surgical and optical techniques can correct or even prevent many vision problems with early detection and can help people preserve their vision as they grow older," Edgar said.

"This event, being sponsored by the Illinois Department on Aging and the Illinois Association of Ophthalmology, provides a perfect opportunity to emphasize the importance of healthy eyes and proper eye care. We hope seniors will take advantage of this unique opportunity."

The one-day event will involve at least 80 sites and about 100 volunteer ophthalmologists who will screen for glaucoma, cataracts, macular degeneration and other diseases common to the aging eye.

Times of the screenings will vary by location but generally will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"We are sincerely grateful to the Illinois Association of Ophthalmology," said Illinois Department on Aging Director Maralee L. Lindley. "Their members, who are specialists in medical and surgical eye care, are taking time out of their busy schedules to provide a valuable service to the older population."

Although a screening does not substitute for a complete ophthalmological examination, it does help determine whether a person is experiencing any major problems with their eyes or vision. If a potential problem is revealed during the screening process, the individual will be encouraged to make an appointment for a comprehensive eye exam with his or her own physician.

Individuals wishing to know the sites in their area which are participating in the statewide event may contact the Illinois Association of Ophthalmology at 1-800-538-3627.

Belleville golfers star at pro level

Didn't you think as long as the major league baseball strike was expected, the televised golf networks had time to package features on other sports?

What a coup it would have been to see a TV feature on Belleville as a hotbed of golf prior to all four of its professionals — Bob Goolby, Jay and Jerry Haas and Frank Conner — cashing in on the same day.

SURE, THEIR combined earnings were $36,739, including $36,000 for Nike Ozarks champion Jerry Haas, but money is not the main issue here.

The issue is, had our foursome been from New York or Los Angeles or even Chicago, the networks would have had a field day with reference to their being big-market products.

Yes, Jay Haas has resided in South Carolina and Conner in Texas, but name another high school (Township/West) or city that has spawned such success.

Conner was accurate at Springfield, Mo., when he told Jerry Haas that, had they tied, they could have played the playoff at St. Clair Country Club.

In the Ozarks Open, guess who had the best rounds on the Par-72 Highland Springs Country Club Course? Haas had a 66 in the second round and Conner a 64 on the final round. Frank earned $22,700 for second place.

MEANWHILE, ON the same day (Aug. 14), Jay Haas finished 14th for $32,000 in the PGA championship after earlier conceding for the top 10 in Tulsa, Okla. In Grand Rapids, Mich., Goolby, the Haas' uncle, tied for 17th in the PGA Seniors to earn $8,000.

Jay Haas' rounds included a four-under 66 and Goolby had an opening-round four-under 68. While Jay is headed for his best financial year, he also should qualify for the USA team involved in competition against an international team in the President's Cup on Sept. 15.

Goolby is headed toward $100,000 as a Vantage Cup senior and Jerry Haas and Conner can realistically shoot for the top 10 on the Nike and an automatic PGA Tour card for 1995.

Would that girls' national notoriety? My guess is it will take something like Althoff junior-to-be Jill Gornic to compete well against worldwide players in Japan.

Maybe that's what it would take for Belleville to get its due recognition for golf. If the Japanese learned of Gornic's practice routine, might they also stand and bow to a city already with four male pros, with Jill destined to reach the female glitz?

EXTRA INNINGS: At baseball strike time, Cardinal minor leaguers T.J. Mathews of Columbia and DuRond Stovall of Belleville were doing what it takes to earn a promotion for next season and possibly an invite to the major league spring training camp.

After going 5-5 at St. Petersburg, Fla., Mathews was 4-3 by mid-August at Class AA Little Rock, Ark. While the right-hander was limited to a certain number of pitches per game, he had 126 strikeouts after 135½ innings.

Just maybe at that nearly one-per-inning rate, he might even be given a chance at relief pitching.

AT MADISON, WIS., Granite City catcher Joe Wallace continues to show that his future is not Class A with a .274 average, although he was seeing limited play.

(Art Voellinger is the baseball and soccer coach at O'Fallon High School. He writes a twice-weekly column for the Journal.)

Ames returns to lead Lady Warrior netters

Linda Ames
GCHS coachBy Rob Raphael Correspondent

Linda Ames is happy about her new job. Ames, a lifelong resident of Granite City, is the new head girls' tennis coach at Granite City High School, and she couldn't be more pleased.

Ames, 26, a graduate of GCHS, said she fulfilled a dream of hers when she was hired to coach the Lady Warriors.

"I PLAYED TENNIS throughout high school when Dick Harmon was coach," she said. "To come back years later and coach tennis here is a dream come true."

Ames replaces Laura Chappell, who resigned earlier this year. The GCHS girls' tennis program has seen several different coaches in the last few years.

"I was surprised when I heard Laura had resigned," Ames said. "So when I was offered the position I decided to take advantage. I plan on sticking around for a while — this is the job I always wanted."

Ames is currently teaching economics at GCHS.

"To come back to Granite and teach was a thrill in itself, but when I was hired to coach tennis it became even better," Ames said.

AMES AND THE Lady Warriors have been practicing since Aug. 15, but she says she already has the varsity lineup set. Twenty girls are out for tennis, and Ames has no assistant coach.

"It can be hard sometimes with so many girls," she said. "We have been doing two-a-days since we started, so we have been busy. But they are a good group, so it hasn't been too much to handle."

The team has been concentrating on funda-mentals for the first week of practice. Ames said most of the girls have played tennis previously, so it was not that hard to pick the varsity players.

Ames came back to Granite City after working in the Hazelwood (Mo.) School District, where she taught and worked as the assistant boys' tennis coach.

"All the while, I dreamt of coming back to Granite," she said.

FOR HER TEAM, Ames is taking a realistic approach toward her team's chances in the Southwestern Conference.

"You really can't expect to compete with the Belleville team," she said. "The game is just more serious there, and they have the resources and facilities to play year-round. Tennis seems to be more of a recreational sport here in Granite City."

(See AMES, Page 3B)

Heads up — Warrior senior Eric Hahn plows into a tackling dummy as assistant coach Larry Curry keeps watch during practice last week. The Warriors open the season Friday at home against Cahokia.

Helping hands
Warriors team up, lead Busch to Missouri titleBy Tony Panozzo
Staff writer

The Granite City High School soccer team's season opener is still a week away, but three Warriors are fresh off a state championship.

A trio of GCHS seniors — Shawn Petroski, John Nizinski and Paulie Bucherich — spent the summer leading the St. Louis-based Busch under-17 select team to the Missouri state title.

Busch moved on to regional play at the United States Midwest Championships in Rockford, Ill., and came within one match of reaching the national tournament. But getting that far after winning state was an experience Petroski, Nizinski and Bucherich will not soon forget.

Petroski, the team's top scorer, led Busch to the state select title following an undefeated season in the St. Louis Youth Soccer Association. Nizinski was a key ingredient to the team's success, and Bucherich was another player before suffering a season-ending knee injury in April.

ALL THREE PLAYERS were thrilled after defeating White Star, the defending U.S. Missouri state champion, June 12 at Notre Dame High School in St. Louis.

"It was a great experience," said Petroski, who scored a key goal in the team's previous game, a 2-1 victory over Norco in the state semifinals. "It was great because I've never been part of a state championship."

"It was a lot of fun," Bucherich said. "Even though I didn't get to play, they kept me as a part of the team."

"It felt pretty good," Nizinski said. "It was fun because I didn't think we'd go that far. (Norco) was supposed to win it all."

On June 4, Busch met Norco with a state championship with the IOGP points championship with two races remaining. But don't look for him to slow down. Bill and sons Mike and Tim, who make-up the Seebold Racing team, will be going after the checkered flag.

This year's event consists of three races: the SST-45 Class; the SST-140 Class; and the Formula 1 Champ Boat Class. The boat in each class varies in size and speed.

"The SST-45 boat is a super stock craft propelled by a two-cylinder outboard motor that reaches speeds over 80 mph. The class was created to provide a lower-cost, entry-level craft for

Seebold joining forces with Beckman in Grand Prix powerboat race

By Scott Fitzgerald
Staff writer

Amid the throng of powerboat drivers gathering in Fenton this weekend for the Bud Light Championship Grand Prix, Todd Beckman is a small fish in a huge pond.

But the South County resident, who will be driving in his first race of the 1994 season, hopes to make quite a splash with the help of a pretty big fish.

Beckman, 27, plans on driving in both the SST-140 and Champ boat classes at this year's event, set to conclude today on the Meramec River at George Winter Park in Fenton. Qualifying runs took place Saturday and the finals will be today.

And in Beckman's corner will be none other than Fenton native Bill Seebold, the sport's winningest driver.

Beckman, who participated in a handful of races on the International Outboard Grand Prix (IOGP) circuit over the past two years, will compete under the name of Seebold Racing. He will drive a Seebold boat, use their equipment and draw from the elder's years of experience.

BECKMAN IS MORE than a bit appreciative. "It's like being a racing car driver and hooking up with Mario Andretti," Beckman said. "In powerboat racing, there's no one better."

This year Seebold, a member of the Granite City Sports Hall of Fame, has proved it again. He has already locked up the IOGP points championship with two races remaining. But don't look for him to slow down. Bill and sons Mike and Tim, who make-up the Seebold Racing team, will be going after the checkered flag.

This year's event consists of three races: the SST-45 Class; the SST-140 Class; and the Formula 1 Champ Boat Class. The boat in each class varies in size and speed.

"The SST-45 boat is a super stock craft propelled by a two-cylinder outboard motor that reaches speeds over 80 mph. The class was created to provide a lower-cost, entry-level craft for aspiring racers and is making its first appearance at Winter Park.

"The SST-140 boat is also a super stock craft that is powered by an outboard engine bigger than the SST-45. It can attain top speeds of about 120 mph."

"The Formula 1 Champ boat is the lightest and quickest high performance racing machine in the world. It can accelerate from a standing start to 100 mph in just five seconds and reaches a top speed of 140 mph."

BECKMAN AND BILL and Mike Seebold will compete in the Champ boat class. Tim Seebold and Beckman will run in the SST-140 class.

Beckman was all set to run in 1993 until the event was called off due to last year's flooding. As a rookie, Beckman qualified for the SST-140 finals and started in 10th position. But a collision on the first turn ended his day early.

"That disappointment has stayed with me," Beckman said. "I want to make it through the whole race this time."

Beckman has said he wouldn't be satisfied without a top 10 finish in each race — a high goal for a driver who hasn't entered a race this season.

"It won't be like last year when I was racing all summer," Beckman said. "But I've been doing some test runs with the Seebolds and I'm ready to go."

GCHS spiker Harris to join Iowa Wesleyan

By Rob Raphael

In what has become a real trend in the last few years, another Granite City volleyball player has received a scholarship to move on and play at the collegiate level.

Lori Harris, a 5-foot-8 middle hitter, has signed a letter of intent to play volleyball this fall at Iowa Wesleyan College in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

IWC is an NAIA Division I college that competes in the American Midwest Conference, which is made up of schools from Iowa, Missouri and Illinois.

Harris, the daughter of Michael and Mary Ann Harris of Granite City, said Iowa Wesleyan was the right choice for her.

"I WAS TOLD it was a very small school, but when I visited I was impressed — it is plenty big enough for me," Harris said. "IWC, a private college, has a first-year coach in Michelle Thompson, a former University of Iowa player and coach."

Harris said she liked Thompson from the beginning. "I really enjoyed my talk with her," Harris said. "She seemed excited, and she brings a fresh attitude with her. Kind of like when Cindy (Gagich) started at Granite."

GAGICH SAID SHE was pleased with Harris' scholarship as well.

"Lori has developed the solid fundamentals of the sport which will allow her to compete at that level her first year," Gagich said.

Harris' play as a middle hitter at GCHS contributed to back regional titles in 1992-93.

"Cindy was a great coach who helped me a lot," Harris said. "You could really tell the difference when she stepped in — the whole program stepped up a notch. She made it a real team."

At IWC, Harris believes she has a real chance to step in as a freshman and play on a regular basis.

"I think Coach Thompson likes me on defense, so I am hoping to play a lot, probably at a middle blocker position," Harris said. "We don't have a lot of height, so I think I can fit in at that position."

HARRIS SAID SHE was originally contacted by Mark Gillespie of IWC before Thompson was hired as coach. Gillespie watched a tape of Harris and asked her to visit the college.

Sox capture consolation title at Centralia

The Granite City Sox rebounded from a first-round loss with two straight victories to win the consolation title at the Centralia Tournament, held July 26-27.

After losing 12-10 to Centralia II in their opening game, the Sox posted wins over Centralia I and O'Fallon. The Sox scored 34 runs through three tournament games.

Against Centralia II, Granite City was led offensively by Chris Ousley and Dustin Brewer. Both had two hits and two runs batted in. Paul Kacera went 1-for-2 with a double and an RBI. Rob Grady doubled, and Tim Wallace went 1-for-3 with a double and RBI.

Kacera fired a no-hitter in Granite City's next game, a 14-1 win over Centralia I. At the plate, Kacera went 2-for-3 with three RBIs and Brewer went 2-for-3 with three RBIs.

Zack Miller tripled twice, Tim Wallace went 1-for-2 with an RBI, and Dustin Johnson and Chris Ousley both doubled. Tim Jackstadt went 1-for-1 with two RBIs.

The Sox then defeated O'Fallon 10-3 for the consolation title. Jeff Hayden pitched five innings for the victory. The offensive leaders were Miller, who went 3-for-4 with a double and two RBIs; Brewer, who went 2-for-4 with a double and two RBIs; and Scott Smalley, who went 3-for-4 with a double and an RBI.

watched the tape with Gillespie days before Harris' visit, and the two agreed to aggressively recruit her.

Harris said she would be studying psychology at the college, another season she chose AWC.

Their dean of psychology talked with me also, and she easily convinced me that they had a good department and an excellent background," she said. "That was a big reason why I accepted."

Harris received a partial scholarship.

"With financial aid, it is a good deal," she said. "I am happy with the scholarship and anxious to get going."

minutes left in overtime, Jeff DiMaria scored the game-winning, lifting Busch to the victory. The outcome was considered an upset, and coach Jim Guttman said Petroski's goal proved to be the turning point.

"He came up real big," Guttman said. "It was awesome. It was one of the biggest wins we've had."

The victory set up a state title match with White Star, the two-time defending champs.

The game remained scoreless for the better part of regulation. At the 78-minute mark, Chase Ernst scored off a corner kick fed by Schoenbein. Minutes later, Thebeau took a pass from DiMaria and buried a 22-yard shot for a 2-0 lead.

"It was a rocket," Guttman said. "That clinched it."

The state title gave Busch a spot in the regional tournament, held June 25-30 in Rockford. Fourteen states were represented, and the field included 12 other state championship teams.

Busch began the tourney with an easy 6-1 victory over Iowa. Once again, Petroski led the way, scoring three minutes into the contest and finishing with two goals and an assist.

Busch faced a much stiffer test in its next game against Pegasus, a team made up of the top players from the Chicago area. Busch took an early 2-0 lead, but Pegasus came back to earn a 2-2 tie.

Petroski played a key role early in the game, setting up Dan Schulze for the first goal 18 minutes into the contest.

"Shawn created our first goal," Guttman said. "He beat three guys and won a blocked ball, and Schulze picked up the rebound."

Josh Hallsten scored seven minutes later on a feed by DiMaria to give Busch a 2-0 lead. But Andy Steben of Pegasus struck for two goals, and the game ended in a draw.

Busch coasted in its next game, a 6-0 win over Wauwatosa. Wis. Petroski added three more goals, including a 25-yard blast — all in the first half.

"That was a rocket," Guttman said. "He had a huge game."

Guttman thought his team had scored enough goals to advance from its pool into the regional semifinals, but Pegasus tied Busch on goal differential. The final tiebreaker used was a penalty-kick session between the two teams.

Both teams named five players for the PK session, which lasted just one round. Busch prevailed 4-2 on kicks by Brian Haddock, Matt Patana, Petroski, Ernst and Denny McGrane.

Busch had little trouble in its next game, a 1-0 win over Ohio North in the tournament semis.

Busch had another 1-0 lead and appeared on its way to the national tournament against its next opponent, Ohio Dynamos, in the regional title game. But with 2:38 remaining in regulation, Busch surrendered the tying goal.

Ohio went on to dominate the overtime and prevailed 5-1. Busch, which finished the season second in Region 2.

"It was a shock," Guttman said. "The boys were very disappointed, but I was real proud of them. I think we showed a lot of clubs how good we were."

"When you come that close, it's a big disappointment," Petroski said. "But it was great up there. It was very good competition."

Ohio Dynamos went on to the national tournament in Blaine, Minn., on July 28-30 — and won the U-17 national championship. Busch was left to wonder what could have been — and whether the overtime and penalty kicks made a difference.

"If Paulie had been there, it certainly could have made a difference," Guttman said. "He's a great player."

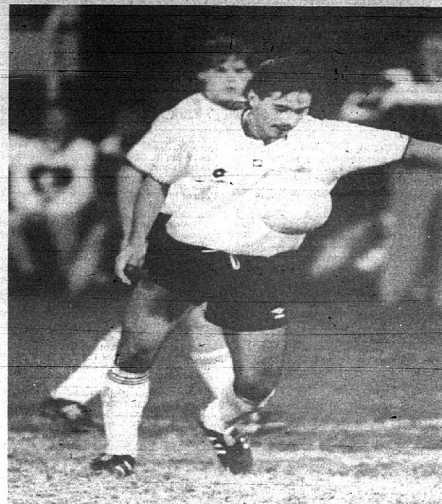

Bucherich, Petroski and Nizinski finished among the team's top scorers. Busch played 38 games and went 27-7-4.

Petroski topped all scorers with 22 goals and 15 assists. In just 25 games, Bucherich had 13 goals and six assists. Nizinski had eight goals and four assists.

"John did a great job. He was very effective in the midfield," Guttman said. "Shawn had a sensational tournament."

Petroski, Nizinski and Bucherich were the only players from Illinois on the team which included four from CBC: Schoenbein, DiMaria, Ernst and Tony Sharamitaro. Three St. Mary's players, Schulze, Thebeau and Hallsten, were also on the squad.

The rest of the team was made up of Jim Walsh (Riverview Gardens), McGrane (Rosary), Patana (Oakville), John Maurer (Lindbergh), Haddock and Mark Hoffmeister (SLUH), Mike McGrath (Parkway South) and Tom Hoth (DeSmet).

GCHS senior midfielder Paulie Bucherich has been slowed down by a knee injury suffered during the offseason.

•Ames

"When I played here, Belleville teams would send down their freshmen teams and they would beat our varsity teams. But we would still finish about .500. If we could do that here, I think that would be a great year."

Ames said she told her players to strive toward beating Collinsville and Edwardsville, as well as the other teams in the conference.

"It's important that we compete well against those teams that are like us," Ames said. "The rest of us are far behind the Belleville teams."

Ames said she sees the potential to achieve her team's goals.

"I see a lot of enthusiasm and hard work, and that's half the battle right there," she said. "If there is one thing I would like to see, it's the girls taking the sport more seriously. Tennis should be fun, but you have to have that serious attitude if you want to raise your play to that next level."

"It's not the girls' fault or anything, it's just the way the sport is perceived in the community. Maybe I can help change that. I know I am happy to be here, and excited about the season beginning."

Knee surgery sidelines Bucherich

By Tony Panozzo
Staff writer

Paulie Bucherich spent the offseason playing soccer and looking forward to his senior season, his third as a starter with the Warriors. But his plans took an unexpected turn in April.

While playing for the Busch under-17 select soccer team, Bucherich injured his right knee during a game at the Belleville Area College complex in Granite City. Bucherich suffered ligament damage and underwent arthroscopic surgery in June.

The injury sidelined the talented midfielder for the rest of the summer, and Bucherich's status is in question for the fall season. Bucherich is currently wearing a knee brace and hoping for the best.

"It's getting a lot stronger, but we'll just have to wait and see what happens," Bucherich said. "I spent the whole summer walking and lifting weights."

"I do as much as I can in practice. We'll see how it goes." Bucherich said the injury occurred when he landed at an awkward angle. He suffered a partially torn anterior cruciate ligament, but it could have been worse.

"I jumped up and when I came down on it, it gave out on me," Bucherich said. "It was just one of those things."

"At first, I thought they were going to have to reconstruct it. I'm sort of getting a second chance."

Bucherich scored six goals as a junior. As a sophomore, he scored four goals.

The Warriors are scheduled to begin the season Saturday at Pearis Richards. Bucherich hopes to be in the lineup sometime this season, but he is not sure when.

"It's still really iffy," Bucherich said. "It depends on how I feel and how Coach (Gene) Baker feels about it."

Like his teammates, Bucherich is not looking too far ahead.

"We're not thinking about the Tournament of Champions or the state tournament or anything, we're just going to make it one game at a time," Bucherich said.

Horoscope

Sunday, Aug. 21
ARIES (March 21-April 19). Re-evaluate your lifestyle. Enjoy all the possibilities at home. A family clean-up project, followed by an informal feast, is togetherness at its best. Older folks need extra consideration.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Your family needs your leadership. Hosting or being in charge of a children's activity group is a great success.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Try out a creative concept on paper or in private before proposing it to others. Enjoy being the family authority on various subjects today — and expect others to depend upon your organizational skills.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). A lucky star continues shining just for you. If you're vexed with an in-law or legal problem, take a long, deep breath before making a decision you'll have to live with for a long time.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Avoid excess, and get to know new people before revealing any personal information. Your mate's needs come first. You learn much from a one-to-one interaction. Plenty of rest restores your creative energies.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (August 21). The remainder of '94 gets more exciting week by week. Out ties with past hindrances in September. You have a chance to get in on the ground floor of an exciting new career or project in October — establish a financial strategy in November.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Time with a pal is more rewarding than solitude. There's much to be learned from a romance with someone of a different age. Words of wisdom you hear today seem directed to you personally.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Useful, practical items are available at a bargain in the early hours. A sensible health plan you're followed today — tonight, duties may seem a bit burdensome, but the load lightens very soon, so take heart.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You're surrounded by many all day — and by evening, you're quite alone in the crowd. A child restores your hopeful perspective by showing true love. Today's lesson in romance is to live and learn.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Temporary inconveniences at home shouldn't dampen your spirits — get some sunshine during the early hrs. Show that you care, but a hard-to-please loved one doesn't need to be coaxed too much.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). All the fun of cheerful, familiar faces, as well as at least one intriguingly fresh personality, make it an interesting day. Tonight, one who asks for your advice or blessings thinks you're tops.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). A big breakfast gets you off to a good start. Resist on various goods. The most irresistible bargain or sales pitch until you've balanced the books tonight. Move furniture, and take command in the week ahead.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Divided loyalties could cause you to use more of your resources than you mean to as you try to please all concerned. It's easier to get into a tight spot in relationship than it is to get out.
